Yorkshire 2019 Para-Cycling International & UCI Road World Championships

Quick Intro:

- UCI Road World Championships – biggest event in the cycling calendar.
- Riders compete for their countries, rather than for individual race teams.
- It's the only time this happens outside of the Olympics.
- Nine-day event set to attract visitors from across the globe.
- For the very first time, Para-Cycling Road Races will run alongside the World Championships.
- The Para-Cycling races will be one of the qualifiers for the Tokyo 2020 Olympics.

Yorkshire 2019 Para-Cycling International

Saturday 21st September 2019

- Tadcaster is one of four start points for the para-cycling road race.
- The race will comprise four groups of disabled riders.
- Riders racing the longest distance start in Beverley; shorter courses will begin along one continuous route in Tadcaster, Wetherby and Harrogate.
- Riders will come into the district at North Duffield, before heading through Riccall, Cawood and Ulleskelf.

UCI Road World Championships

Friday 27th September 2019

- Young elite riders will pass through the district
- Women's junior and men's under-23 road races will pass through the Selby district, as they make their way from Doncaster to Harrogate.
- These races will come into our area at Kellington, before heading to Monk Fryston, Sherburn-in-Elmet and Tadcaster.

SELBY
950

A large, stylized teal logo for Selby 950. The word "SELBY" is written vertically in a bold, sans-serif font on the left. To its right, the number "950" is rendered in a very thick, rounded font. The zero is particularly large and contains a white silhouette of a swan, facing left, with its neck curved upwards and its tail feathers visible at the bottom.
